

Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA®) – Level I (June 2018 Exam)

“Course Starts January 27, 2018”

Registration will open on September 1, 2017 | Early bird rates are until October 15, 2017

What is the CFA®?

The CFA® (Chartered Financial Analyst®) is the most respected and valued credential in the global finance community and it is increasingly viewed by many as a passport to enter into, and advance within investment management and corporate finance professions.

Exam Focus

At Level I, candidates are asked basic knowledge and comprehension questions and must perform some analysis. Exam focus here is on:

- Tools and concepts that apply to investment valuation and portfolio management
- Basic concepts regarding securities and markets
- CFA Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct

The Level I exams include 240 total multiple choice questions, 120 on the morning session of the exam and 120 on the afternoon session. Each multiple choice question is free-standing (not dependent on other questions) and has three possible answers: A, B, and C. All questions are equally weighted and there is no penalty for guessing.
